Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : File

FROM : Chief, Investigation Division

SUBJECT: Exit Interviews

DATE: 14 May 1948

On this date, the Executive for Inspection and Security, in conference with the Acting Deputy for Security and the writer of this memorandum, advised that the Congress should not be specifically mentioned in exit interviews, but that persons being interviewed should be told in general that the secrecy agreement applies in whatever testimony they may be required to give at a future date. Our extreme willingness to cooperate in clearing such information as they may be called upon to give should be emphasized.
